

HFHA 2010 SPRING FIELD TRIP TO ROUSH & NANKIN MILLS

SATURDAY, APRIL 24TH

We will begin with a tour of Roush in Livonia at 9:30am, see the back of this page for directions. The Roush Automotive Collection, located in the Detroit Metropolitan area, is a 30,000 sq. ft. private facility. Housed within the collection are a wide variety of displays, multi-media exhibits, artifacts, memorabilia and 110+ vehicles dedicated to the preservation of the heritage of Roush Enterprises. They have a collection of Mustangs from 1965 to present on display.

After the tour at Roush it is off to Nankin Mills. Nankin Mills is said to have been a favorite place for Henry Ford to visit during his boyhood. Ford would join his father, a farmer, for the journey to the mill by wagon along Ann Arbor Trail, which fronts the mill. In 1918, the now-famous automaker decided to purchase Nankin Mills from Floyd Bassett, the last miller and convert it into a small factory Ford made major changes to the mill, but worked hard to maintain the integrity of the old building.
